

From: Samuel Lewis
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 4:18pm
Subject: Aol suit vs. Microsoft

I feel that AOL's suit against Microsoft, claiming that Internet Explorer illegally harmed Netscape's Navigator browser is without merit and should be turned down. I purchased a computer package that came with Netscape Navigator one year plus two months ago. After learning and working with Nets. Nav. for 9 months, I voluntarily switched to Internet Explorer and much prefer it. IE's success is based on market preference and support by the public.

--